URGE VOTERS GO TO POLLS EARLY TUES.

Next Tuesday is election day and there promises to be the greatest number of votes cast than at any presidential election in the history of the United States. The registration of voters and when the election officials go to the polls Tuesday morning they will bid their wives and families good bye for what promises to be a twenty four to thirty six hour job. The voting of straight tickets may cut that number of hours down considerably, but from present indications the split tickets will greatly outnumber the circle marked ballots and the judges and clerks will earn every penny of the $16 that they will receive for their work.

The Republican and the Democrats are both insistent that every voter be brought to the polls. Both political camps are bending every effort to get out the votes and they are coming.

The Herald has been asked to carry a special message to the women voters. They are asked to go to the polls between nine and twelve o'clock and not to wait until the afternoon when there is certain to be great numbers of last minute voters. After the departure of the morning trains there will be a lull and the woman who goes to the polls at that time will probably not be required to wait long and will save the time of herself and the election officials.

The registration in the three voting precincts within the village of Arlington Heights show a heavy registration. Precinct No. 2, which votes at the Zander garage has 737 registered voters; precinct No. 3, which votes at the depot 800 voters; precinct No. 4, who vote at the village hall has 985 voters.

That there may be no confusion as to the place to vote, the Herald publishes the following descriptions of precinct boundaries.

Precinct No. 1—Polling place, Wheeling village hall and includes territory that extends west of Wheeling about 2 1/2 miles and about the same distance south. The line is irregular, taking in the golf ground west of Wheeling, but not Buffalo Grove. The Wheeling road which serves as boundary for a time and the Gerken road on the south; extending only a mile west from the township line on the latter road.

Precinct No. 2 — Polling place, Zander Chevrolet garage on State road, Arlington Heights. Includes all of Arlington Heights village north of the railroad and east of State road and all of the rural district north of the railroad that is not included in precinct No. 1, and is west of a line extending north and south on east boundary of cemetery.

The north boundary is the township line.

Precinct No. 3 — Polling place, Northwestern depot. Northern boundary is Thomas street, north corporate limits of village; west boundary Wilke road, south railroad, west State road.

Precinct No. 4 — Polling place, village hall. Includes all Wheeling township south of the Northwestern railroad.

Precinct No. 5 — Polling place, Haberkamp's green house, Mount Prospect. Includes south eastern part of the township, not included in No. 1 or No. 2.

Mrs. Laudermilk Sends Three Entries To Western Horse Shows

We do not know whether Mrs. Laudermilk calls Stonegate or Arlington Heights her home town, but this village will be represented in the coming horse shows at Omaha, Wichita and Kansas City by three animals from her stables. Red Raven and Over the Top are nationally known, but Stonegate (correctly named) is a new one to make the shows.

The horses moved to Stonegate several weeks before their mistress and have a delightful home surroundings in the Laudermilk stables. They have been put thru their paces at a special training yard on the premises. When the editor asked Mr. Laudermilk who was sending the horses, Mrs. Laudermilk or himself, he replied that real estate kept him so busy he had no time to do anything with the horses except to feed them a little sugar on a Sunday morning. He believes that Arlington Heights now known as the home of the greatest race track in the world and the greatest subdivision in the Chicago district will become known as the home of fancy horse show stock.

The recent royal Japanese wedding is described as very colorful. It is quite likely that some of the bride's came off on the groom.

Arlington Booster Club Football Team To Play Schiller Park

The Arlington Booster Club will match their skill against the fast Schiller Park team Sunday, November 4th, this team as the boosters call it, are fast and tricky and it should be a hard fought game from start to finish.

Frank Urlick, brother of the artist is still coaching the boys and how he makes them drill. The Boosters are a clean fighting bunch of football players. If you don't believe it be there Sunday and see what Arlington Heights has to watch for oncoming years.

Be on the field at 2:30 sharp at the high school.

The Arlington lineup will be from the following:

BACKFIELD—Brodman, Bolte, Bencic, Dieball, Heckmiller.

IN THE FRONT LINES—P. Meyer, A. Meyer, R. Meier, M. Kindler, J. Hunkey, P. Machute, D. Winkelman, J. Urlick, E. Schurstein, C. Horcher, P. Gieseke, B. Flesch, H. Swanson.

New Village Office Worthy Of The Name

As the duties of village treasurer and collector increase, E. H. Bolte found he needed a large office and with the remodeling and decorating completed, Arlington Heights people will find a real business office when they call in December and January to pay their special assessment bills. A large counter desk extending the length of the room provides space for the large record books. Our village treasurer has always had a record for efficiency but he has perfected it still more.

He is busy at present preparing 7,000 special assessment bills which become due January first.

The Bolte shoe hospital is still in existence and a competent workman is in charge.

East Pump Station To Be Landscaped

With the dirt available from the highway widening, the village will grade and landscape their property on the northwest highway upon which a well was sunk the past year. Where a slough has existed for many years, there will appear a small park.

Gus Heidorn Now Own Proprietor

Gus Heidorn takes possession of the Arlington Sweet Shop this morning. He has spent his spare time during the last two weeks making plans and getting in readiness for his business venture. It will be a few weeks before he is located in his permanent home, in the quarters now occupied by Adolph Koehler, but he will utilize that time in acquiring the art of mixing drinks at a soda fountain, selling candy without eating any and various other secrets of that trade.

Hog Killing Time Now Made Easy

Farmers are always quick to take advantage of new machinery, but until this time the man who kills his own hogs has had the same tedious work to do as his father. It is different now. The Barrington Packing House will kill and dress hogs for only $1.50 a head. A job which takes all day on the farm, can be done in a modern and sanitary manner at the packing house within a few minutes, where there is every facility for the work. Our advertising columns contain an announcement of this work.

County Place Drainage System Under Highway

Cook county, under whose supervision the highway widening is progressing thru the business district of Arlington Heights, is doing a real job. Not alone is the county paying the entire cost of the work, but it is also installing the underground work, the cost of which is estimated at $7,200. The adjoining property owners are thus saved considerable expense. It is thought that actual pavement will be laid by Monday.

A large pavement breaker was in town a day and cut up large areas in the original pavement, which improvement was necessary to give to the new roadway the proper fall. Narrow strips of the old pavement will remain at Evergreen and Dunton avenue. The work has progressed to such a point that the public can see for themselves the plan that enabled the village to save as many of the trees as possible. The State road crossing will be elevated nearly 13 inches and the trip over the railroad will not be quite so mountainous as formerly.

Passing Observation

An optimist is a man who thinks the little trunk on the back of the car will hold all his wife will want to take on their trip.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Will-o'-the-Wisp

"Ignis fatuus," is simply a Latin name for what we commonly call will-o'-the-wisp or Jack-o'-lantern, and means "deceptive fire." It is a phosphorescent light seen in and over marshy places, and supposedly caused by the evolution and spontaneous combustion of an inflammable gas.

KLEHMS MAKE FINAL OFFER AS MEMORIAL

Arlington Heights is today known as the city of Elms. Klehm's nurseries have made these elm trees possible. The yearly offer of Mr. Geo. Klehm of 500 to a thousand and elm trees free to those who would properly set them out in the parkways, have lined the parkways of the village with thousands of trees. In the newer section of the village these trees are not yet in their full glory, but in the older sections of the town they stand as silent sentinels and as a memorial to the public spiritedness of the Klehms, who, during the last seventy-two years, have aided nature and helped to transform a prairie village into the prettiest town in this section of the county.

But Klehm's Nurseries are soon to pass out of existence. They will no longer be so situated that elm trees will be free for the asking.

It is a fitting climax of seventy years of service to the village of Arlington Heights that this nursery is making their final offer. That offer is greater and bigger than ever before and the Klehms are in hopes that the response will be so general, that there will not be a block in Arlington Heights that will not have its proper number of elm trees. Long after Klehm's Nurseries are forgotten, those trees will stand as a memorial to John Klehm, the founder of the nursery, who passed away many years ago and to the Klehm name which is synonymous with elm trees. It was here that the Moline elm was developed and it was at the Klehm nursery where it was perfected and became standard and recognized the country over as being the finest elm that can be grown. Arlington Heights has had a part in that development and there are few blocks in town that do not contain examples of the tree that has brought fame to Arlington Heights and the name of Klehm.

Alderman Geo. Klehm announced the final offer this week with the request that people who are interested notify the village clerk as to the number of trees that they will sponsor. The trees will be taken from the 150 acre nursery that is being transformed into a deluxe subdivision. The trees must be moved this fall and winter.

Advice and help in proper planting of these trees is under consideration, depending upon the number of requests for the trees. Klehm feels that the yearling tree by his firm in endeavoring to press upon the property owner, beauty and advantage of further curbing of the entire town, him now properly planted. No strings tied to this offer. Arlington Heights residents are urged to take advantage of this offer. The trees will be taken from the 150 acre nursery that is being transformed into a deluxe subdivision. The trees must be moved this fall and winter.

Visiting Pastor From Bethel Church is 4th Generation of Pa

The Bethel players of Beto E. church of Chicago are bound to Arlington Heights this evening to present a dramatic play, "The Rock." These players have presented this play in the communities and the audience can expect to witness a first class entertainment. This dramatic club is composed of young people of the Bethel church and have had very good success in play presentation. Accompanying them will be their pastor, Allen Rice, who comes from only one generation of ministers. Not only does he represent the fourth father's side, but also on his mother's side. He likewise has uncles and cousins who are ministers. In talking with a representative of the Herald, he could not see anything unusual in such a situation. He believes that there is just as much opportunity for success in the ministerial line as in the business or professional branches, and he knows that he gets a whole lot more enjoyment and a lot of less worry than the average business man. Mr. Rice ended that remark with "At least, I am never too tired on Sunday morning to go to church." Rev. Rice is a personal friend of the Rev. Billman.

Opening of "Forty Hours Devotion" At St. James Church Sunday Morning

A change of service is announced for St. James church, Arlington Heights. Services Sunday at 7:30, 9:00 and 10:00 o'clock with communion service at 7:30 and 9:00 o'clock. Opening of forty hours devotion at 10 o'clock. Evening service at 7:45 o'clock Monday, and Wednesday. Sunday and Tuesday will be in English. Tuesday service will be in German. The decorating of the church has been completed. The recent bazaar of the Holy Name Society netted $1600 which is ample to pay the cost of the improvements to the church and leave a balance for other purposes.

VILLAGE HALL CONTRACT LET AT ARLINGTON

Workmen are clearing away the band stand upon the village property preparatory for the erection of the addition to the village hall, which will mean in reality a new building, half for Arlington Heights, to aid the mothers in need. Monday this valuable agency.

The services of the clinic are a free to every baby in Arlington Heights. Dr. E. S. Robins, the baby specialist, who has been in charge of the clinic the last year and a half, is a staff doctor of the Sarah Morse Hospital, of Michael Reese Hospital, Chicago, one of the foremost children's hospitals in the middle west. He is a graduate of the Illinois Medical school and has done post-graduate work in the field of infant feeding in Vienna.

An individual chart is made out for each baby at the time of enrollment. The baby is weighed, examined by the doctor, and the mother is supplied with directions and advice for the baby's care and feeding at each monthly visit. No sick babies may be brought to the clinic hence there need be no fear that any baby will catch a contagious disease while there.

The monthly clinic is held the afternoon of the second Wednesday of each month in the rooms of the Arlington Heights public center above the Davis store. Miss Martha Jackson, public health nurse, is in charge to assist Doctor Robins. Mrs. George Parker registers the babies and keeps the charts on file.

Legal Abbreviation

The letters "SS" at the beginning of a legal document are the abbreviation of the Latin word "scilicet," which means "to wit," or "namely." "Scilicet" is pronounced "sil-lis-et" with the accent on the first syllable. It is derived from the Latin "scire," to know, and sometimes "ss" is used as the abbreviation of "summons."—Pathfinder Magazine.

Caught in the Whirl

VOTE

It may seem unnecessary to urge the men and women of this district to go to the polls next Tuesday, yet the importance of the election is so great that no efforts are being spared to get the voters to the polls. It is a duty that every man and woman owes to his country, his family and himself. This election is costing the taxpayers immense sums. That expenditure is wasted unless the election results in a true expression of the desires of the American people. The citizenry of the northwest towns of Cook county probably realize the importance of the election, but they should realize that fact strongly enough to see to it that every voter in the family goes to the polls.

ECHOS OF THE NEWS

Charles Lindbergh has developed a streak of romance. When told of his reported engagement, he said to the inquiring reporter, "This is interesting; tell me more about it."

NEW DEPOT AT ARLINGTON IS BEING URGED

Arlington Heights needs a new railroad depot in keeping with its new business district and the subdivisions that are being developed within its boundaries. No official action in this matter has been taken by the Northwestern, but it was brought to their attention Thursday when Mr. Laudermilk and Julius Flentie, president of the village met the officials of the railroad company and went over the railroad right-of-way from Arlington Park south to Mt. Prospect village limits. The right of way needs cleaning up and Messrs. O'Donnell and Cramer, were in Arlington Heights to look over the situation and see what could be done to remedy it.

Plans for the new depot are a little unusual. "Let the railroad do it" spirit has delayed many depots and prevented the erection of many passenger stations. If Arlington Heights is to get a new depot it will be brought about thru the cooperation of the business people and subdividers with the railroad company. Such a plan was suggested by Mr. Laudermilk at the village board meeting Monday evening. He stated that his organization was willing to back up such a plan by paying 25 per cent of the cost of the depot and on top of that they were willing to erect the building at cost. The only strings tied to the offer was that the business men and other public spirited citizens should cooperate in raising the funds.

The general architecture of the Arlington Heights depot is not bad, but the interior is a disgrace to the community. It is also unsanitary. Included in the new depot plan would also be the cleaning up of the entire right-of-way and removal of the present freight depot. The modern depot now nearing completion at Cumberland, between Mt. Prospect and Des Plaines is awakening a demand for real depots in the real villages.

The conference between the railroad officials and Mayor Flentie and Mr. Laudermilk were not held around a desk. The four covered the ground on foot. The suggestion was made that the freight depot and the elevator be moved at least a block further west. A freight depot in the center of the village gives too much of a western appearance to an otherwise progressive city. Old style elevators are likewise things of the past and it is only a question of time when the one remaining in the village will be junked. The Arlington Elevator & Coal Co. are preparing for the inevitable by the erection of modern storage silos and have already transferred the greater part of their interests to a new location on the Northwestern highway.

The railroad company signified their willingness to remove the stock yards or cattle loading pens, which have also been obsolete in this day of suburban growth. The need of a through street underneath the railroad track was pointed out and the suggestion made that it would be comparatively easy to extend George street east beneath the track and have it connect with the Northwestern Highway. The advisability of replacing the present crossing gates with wig wag signals was also discussed.

Lindbergh has declared for Hoover, but the Republicans will probably have to put him in irons by way of seeing to it that he is home long enough to vote.

Peggy Joyce's prospective new husband is a lord, but if he really marries her he will qualify as a commoner.

It Will Be Derby Shire, If You Please

At last the new Laudermilk subdivision of 150 acres has been named. It will be called Derby Shire and as Mr. Laudermilk says, "worth every bit of the name." Immediately upon the completion of the grading for the highway widening contractor Milburn will move his shovel to this new subdivision. Actual laying of pavement will begin very shortly. Mr. Milburn is moving one paving outfit here from Des Plaines for work on the Northwest highway. He will utilize the material yard near Stonegate for paving of the Klehm tract, which is of easy access and greatly facilitate the work. The trucks can get from the railroad tracks to the job without crossing a single public street.

A whole afternoon of diversion in the line of football is being offered to prospective spectators tomorrow on the Arlington Athletic Field. Two games are on the bill and they should provide a choice bit of how the game should be played. Arlington, of course, is one of the contestants and the other is Antioch, the Northwestern school in the conference circuit. The second teams of the two schools hook up in the anti-climax of the game, met at 2:30 o'clock those that might be called the "varsity" contestants, will show their wares.

However, what will be in a sense diversion to many of the customers assembled, will probably be tragedy to one of the teams and its ardent backers, for both are still in the running for the championship toga and a defeat for either will eliminate that team from further consideration for first honors.

Both teams are being drilled strenuously this week in preparation for this all important game. Antioch is as yet undefeated and on paper rates slightly superior to the Arlington bunch. By more recent scores, however, the boys in Cardinal are given an excellent chance to cop the contest and are very hopeful of being able to turn the trick.

The Heights crew realize that they have an excellent set of backs to stop in Steinger, Sheehan, et al, but they feel that with a little like a break in luck, they should be able to do so. Steinger is probably the best back in the conference and the slogan around the local school all this week has been "Stop Steinger." The other backs are not to be overlooked, and neither are the line players. Let by their bantam captain, Brodman, they will be out there Saturday striving for the first time in the history of the two schools to fight out a victory for the boys in Cardinal. This has never been accomplished by the local school and they feel that this is to be their year.

Many hours are being spent this week in blocking and tackling, the game in which the local boys are most deficient. No doubt but what a much better job of both will be necessary than the boys put up at Leyden last week, where both the blocking and tackling were abominable. The outcome of the game will beyond the question of a doubt, hinge around those two points and as is the case in most football games the more efficient along these two lines will win the game. Antioch is not much heavier than Arlington and this should make a more even game out of it. No matter what the score, or why wins, fans can be assured of a real game.

SCOUTS TO HAVE OWN CAMP SITE

The camping problem of the boy and girl scouts of the Northwest Suburban Council has been settled through the generosity and cooperative spirit shown by a number of Des Plaines citizens. It will also need the financial and moral support of the various communities which will benefit by the plan, but it is certain that for the next ten years at least the scouts from this district will not have to beg camping facilities.

The site is at Rice Lake, Wis., about a hundred miles north of Cook county. The area is 30 acres and those who have seen it state that it is a better site than Indian Mound. Credit for the activities that have resulted in the success of the plan goes to a woman and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Loesch of Des Plaines, whose interest in two boys and girls scouts have made the camp possible.

It has been an open secret that the Northwest Suburban Council of Boy Scouts might be without a summer camp the coming year. The Milwaukee council had let it be known that it was doubtful if they would have room another year for the boys from Illinois. The camp in Michigan is so far away that it is difficult to reach. The start of the movement for a camp of "our" own was started when Mrs. Loesch of Des Plaines was notified that the girl scouts of that town would be unable to use the outing camp of the Cook county council another year. She took the matter up with Mr. Landane, scout executive and a hunt was on to locate a suitable site. They did not know where the necessary funds were to come from but their first thought was a site. They found the site—thirty acres of it at Rice Lake and the price was $5,000. It was there that Mr. Loesch stepped forward and offered to buy the site, which he will turn over to the scout organization at cost any time during the next ten years. The yearly rental in the meantime is very nominal and will only pay taxes and upkeep.

The next step is equipment, the cost of which is estimated at $5,000. Voluntary subscriptions in Des Plaines have raised $1600 on this amount and work has already started on the erection of the dining hall, which will cost $250. Other communities will be asked to share part of the burden to properly equip the camp and there is every reason to believe that every next summer rolls around everything will be in readiness for ten weeks camp to be divided into five weeks each for the boy scouts and the girl scouts.

Mr. Landane and other men are devoting their spare time to "stake aid work" on those camping grounds. Next Saturday a company of them will go up to Rice Lake to collect the stones for the fire place and to trim trees.

Mr. Loesch is an attorney and a brother of Attorney Loesch who has charge of the crime investigation that is in progress in Chicago.

Local Council Boys Took Honors

Mr. Landane has not yet received all of the records attained by two boys from this council who were members of the camp at Indian Mound last summer, but he does know that in every period in which the Northwest Suburban Council had a full troop, that troop carried off the honors of the camp.

Men's Training Course Planned

Mr. Landane is looking forward to a profitable training course for the scoutmasters and assistants. He also reports that there is every probability that there will be several new troops in the western part of the district and two of them may be formed from boys and families connected with the Lutheran church. Mt. Prospect may also put a troop into the field. Announcement of the training course cannot be definitely made until a place can be found for the weekly meetings. At present, Mr. Landane is looking towards either Arlington Heights or Palatine to supply the need.

Arlington Heights Men Take Plane To Attend Illinois Game

With a company of six, Judge H. J. Byrd, Chief of Police, Skeog and Geo. Schmeberger taxied to Champaign last Saturday to attend the Northwestern-Illinois football game. Mr. Byrd acted as pilot part of the distance was a Detroit Stinson cabin plane carrying six people. Clifford Condit of the Pal-Waukee air port was the official pilot. He is the instructor of Mr. Byrd, who is taking up flying and the judge after being assured by his passengers that they had perfect confidence in his ability took the wheel for a part of the trip. Other passengers were A. N. Kerner and "Doc" Stebbings, of Park Ridge.

The plane left the airport on Milwaukee avenue at 11:30 and an hour and a half later reached the landing field at Champaign. They enjoyed the football game and remained for the evening with frat friends. They started for home Sunday morning at 9:45.

SCHAUMBURG

The Achievement club of Schaumburg center school gave a delightful entertainment Tuesday evening in Schutte hall. A large crowd was in attendance. Moving pictures were shown by Mr. Puffer.

Will the party who took magnets from John Schaumbach place in Schaumburg, kindly return the same and no questions will be asked otherwise prosecution will start.

OBSERVER'S NOTES

Hearing that the earth rolls faster some are fearful of disaster; yet we are keeping pace. Through the air, across the ocean, over land in great commotion; men and movements in the race, keep step in your place.

Observed in more than one publication that scientists declare that this old earth is stepping on the gas so to speak and is getting up a little more than her usual nocturnal speed. Can't wonder at it, only where do we get off at in computing time? I'm not familiar with this scientists reasoning, but the why of earths swifter moving, but it no doubt, was brought on trying Daylight Saving nonsense.

November brings Armistice day and here's hoping there will be a more fair and abiding peace agreed upon than that which followed the first Armistice day and that we won't make so much racket about it.

A friend of mine went into one of our popular stores the other day and asked for a nickel's worth of nutmegs. When she got home and opened the package, Lo, and behold, she had five cents worth of English walnuts. Is that proving in any under-hand way that Hoover is Pro-British?

We've heard in ancient days of the Yankees whittling out wooden nutmegs to eke out a where withal to live, but in this substituting English walnuts there was no cheating, as the nuts were fine and probably she got her money's worth, but they wouldn't flavor a sponge cake or a custard.

Beats all the way the blossoms continue to open their bright faces. Tuesday morning, going down town on the Misses Meyer's new lawn, a bed of asters were as bright as if there had been no frost or freeze and in our own place there are yet bright blossoms to cheer us.

The tomatoes? "Yes, we hain't got no tomatoes." But was it Monday, we saw Mrs. Elmer Crane carrying two nice looking ripe tomatoes from her garden, and she said she knew what she would have for lunch. Bright woman, to enjoy those fine tomatoes while they might. Don't care a whoop whether they classify them as vegetables or as fruit, they are as good for us as oranges, so says Doc Evans, Brady and Jane Eddington.

Observe some more of our long available park spaces has been secured for more of the city beautiful. Well, while we were at long-gestated over unimportant matters in slipped a clever realtor and secured those splendid acres. Pays us for being so indifferent to our major interests while bickering over minor ones.

Speaking of parks, I am reminded of the estates, within the limits of Arlington Heights, that were once real park like places. Attractive for those who were "all dressed up with no place to go," on Sunday and were glad to walk about the attractive homes of residents. By the way, in those days, a fifty or 66 foot were not classed as an estate.

When we came to Arlington Heights there was Springlawn, our first home, a place of 60 or more acres, mostly set to trees, shrubs and flowers. It was a place improved and laid out by Mr. Atkins. Had deer, peacocks, a buffalo, and artificial lake with goldfish and other furry beauties. An Artesian well, eleven hundred feet in depth, carried water in iron pipes all over the place.

There were summer houses, fountains and pagodas. It was a wonderful place. Another park like estate was "The Evergreens" built and improved on the northeastern borders of the town by Mr. and Mrs. James Dunton, containing 180 acres. Some of the beautiful trees yet stand, and the house is one of the best built residences in Arlington Heights. It was too bad the whole acreage and the beautiful trees had not been kept as a park or for some public hospital or school.

The Olmsted home "Sunnyside" including the block, now the property of Mrs. Richard Bray, and the Heller family was once a real park with trees and shrubs, and was one of the old beauty spots of Arlington Heights. Now it holds two of our most substantial homes.

Observer is more and more impressed with the growth and improvement of Arlington, and yet, as we take on city proportions and city activities and entertainment. We realize how much we fall short of adequate public improvements and public halls and places of amusement or entertainment. To be sure our five church buildings have these, but they are not open to political or civic uses.

This was brought out forcibly when a place was asked for to hold some sort of meeting of organized women to instruct on voting and finally Rev. Billman secured the public library rooms for the meeting to be held Thursday afternoon. What we need is a non-sectarian, non-partisan community hall. We do need it.

How is this? Is there anyone running for the Presidency on the Republican ticket? We have several installments of campaign literature through the mail, but it has all been for that polished and popular candidate Gov. Al. Smith. Seems a bit funny none of the republicans are saying anything or is it all understood that we give to vote for but one candidate?

In London yesterday an interviewer questioned George Bernard Shaw in regard to much mooted peace pact between nations. G. B. S., as he is popularly known, pained with some mighty telling replies. The interviewer said, are you satisfied that the United States is anxious to foster peace and good will among nations? Do you think its efforts past and present will have any serious effect upon the outlook of peace?

The United States, Shaw replied "proved in 1917 that it was more frankly bellicose than any of the European combatants, it sent girls to prison for eighteen years for deprecating war, and arrested men for quoting the constitution. All christian nations preach peace and good will, making quite a fuss about it on the 25th of December, until the first shot is fired and then—"

While we may not relish the quaint sarcasm of Mr. Shaw's views on our nations desire for peace, we must admit we are almost at the point of "fighting with knives and forks" over this election and when the tumult and the shouting cease, will we settle down and sing "Peace, peace, wonderful peace and forget the falsehoods and the mud-slinging?"

'Tis not in peace, we here unite, Today from Maine to southern coast, Nor western lands that still will boast, Of gorgeous blooms and warm sun-light.

Nor where our noble capitol, Upstairs its towering monument, Honoring our Great first president Nor where the palm tree shadows fall, Far from the peaceful Chesapeake Where storm and desolation wreak; The fury of the mad cyclone, Where homes and peace were overthrown;

There is no peace in all the land, Where rock mountains silent stand, Or where majestic rivers run; And black destructions work is done, No peace from the great Empire state, To California's golden gate, Nor where Chicago's towers rise, Bringing confusion from the skies. By aerial and swift airplane, Great midwest empress we love best,

Sitting enthroned beside the lake, The nations heart beats in her breast, The nations arteries from it take, Their life and strength from shore to shore, The Nations voices, through her roar. In all our land there is no peace, Until election wranglings cease, Out of the shoutings and the noise, May righteous peace be sent, God of all nations rule our choice, For President.

Didn't eat meat for dinner last night, nor have wild dreams in which warring ancestors threatened destruction if we don't all vote right. Ate a sane and sanitary supper, slept well, but O, the wild furies let loose over the radio, one would be almost convinced that there isn't an honest man running for office in all this favored land of ours.

Just glance over the cast of characters and you will read action, and humor in every name. Don't miss this up to the notch play given by our own talented home talent, always so much better than so called professionals. Don't miss it, Thursday and Friday nights, the 8th and 9th.

Meantime help us, dear fellow-citizen, to heed the scripture—"Let no man bear false witness against his neighbor." I have yet to hear of any bitter feelings created between friends and neighbors in this "City of Good Neighbors" because of difference of opinion on election issues. Every man, woman and legal voter has an inalienable right to their individual opinion on politics, church or choice of a doctor.

Have you observed how we turn out to attend church when there is no wedding or a funeral? There is no direct command on going to church, but we are exhorted thru Holy writ not to neglect the assembling of ourselves together; also that "They who love the Lord spake often to one another of these things and a book of remembrance was kept." When the school bell rings you send your children to school. You do not want them to grow up dumb. Are we content in blind indifference to remain dumb spiritually in neglect of "assembling ourselves together" when the church bell rings?

Hear church bells ringing, Far out from the steeple; Swift autos bringing, The great throngs of people.

Great throngs that gather, Up for a bright wedding, Up the long stairs the bride ascending.

Hark, bells are ringing, On God's holy day; Great throngs are winging, Out on the highway.

In their swift cars, Away they are flying; In the church there's no wedding, And no one is dying.

Over the pavement, Swiftly they are speeding; In God's house today, They acknowledge no needing.

Hark, bells are ringing, Calling away; Children from idleness, Children from play.

School calls together, The children now come, Heed not the weather, Who wants his child dumb?

Church bells are calling, Far out from the steeple; To wake the appalling, Indifference of people.

Church bells are ringing, Our spirits immortal; Cry out great need, To enter its portal.

Here the bells ringing, From every church steeple, God's servants are bringing, Good news to His people.

Church bells are calling, From every home steeple; Shake of this appalling, Indifference—Come all ye people!

1. Pray Daily.
Have a stated time, preferably in the beginning of the day. Pray at all times when you need help. "Watch you therefore and pray always."

2. Read your Bible.
Read it daily with prayer. It is God's message to you. "Blessed are they that hear the Word of God and keep it."

3. Do something.
Do a Christian act every day, a word, a smile, a helping hand. Be active in the church and everywhere for Christ. "Be ye doers of the Word and not hearers only."

4. Attend the Services of Worship.

BOWLING NOTES

The Arlington Candy Boys lost three to the Steinke Five in three close contests. The candy team are glad to mention that they have secured the services of R. H. Boeger. The Metz Cab team won two from Fritz Kehs's Kab Motor Boys. It seems those Cab Boys won't behave.
Kitty Korner lost two out of three to the Edelweiss Five. The Kitties are not going as good as last season, but they sure are a good bunch of bowlers when they get started and the writer believes they will give plenty of competition before the season ends. See you Monday.

Among the new residents in Arlington Heights is the family of Thomas A. Polk who has purchased one of the Robert Peth houses on South Mitchell. Mr. Polk is employed by Mr. Shepherd and is a painter by trade. Wm. Garland recently moved into another of the Peth houses which he has also purchased.

An Arlington Heights business man was driving along the highway early this week, when his car accidentally hit a pheasant. Rather than to leave the fowl there, our friend brought it home only to have a local police officer casually inform him that he was liable to a heavy fine if the bird was found in his possession. A friend chanced to pass by and was presented with the bird, whereupon the officer is reported to have helped eat the bird. Said auto driver is now wondering if it was a put up job. It looks that way, Ed, especially if you can prove that the officer ate some of the bird. Will somebody page Mr. Deverman.

Wm. Krefl has returned to his duties in the bank, considerably improved in health. He found excelsior Springs a delightful place. The farmers were disgusted and left the meeting determined to vote for Hoover.

Tag Day Saturday For Infant Welfare

A tag day for the benefit of the Infant Welfare Center of Arlington Heights has been approved by Mayor Julius D. Flentje for Saturday, November 3. The Girl Scouts will tag on the downtown streets. Mothers of the babies now enrolled in the clinic, will make a house to house canvass of the residential districts.

Although the Welfare Clinic has been operating in Arlington Heights almost ten years, this is the first appeal to the general public for financial aid. With the growth of the town during the last few years, there are increasingly more babies to be cared for and a larger proportion of the mothers are learning of the valuable service to be obtained by enrolling the children and bringing them regularly once a month for examination and advice.

The average number of babies examined at the clinic, held the afternoon of the second Wednesday of each month, has increased from six to twenty-five during the last two years. This large increase in enrollment means greatly increased expense for the services of the infant nutrition specialist from Chicago, Dr. L. S. Robins, must be engaged for an entire afternoon instead of for only an hour as was formerly the case.

The Baby Welfare movement was started locally almost ten years ago by the Women's Club of Arlington Heights. The purpose of the movement, which is one of the most essential planks of civic and national betterment in all progressive communities, is not to doctor the sick baby, but to keep the well baby well. Accordingly the first clinic was established to help the babies through the danger months of July and August. Within a few years the mothers of the welfare babies were able to make the venture a year around monthly institution.

It has been financed through these years by the efforts of the mothers, by card parties, bake sales, and by private donations. However, since the number of babies to be supervised has increased from six to twenty-five, the community at large is called upon to aid the mothers in carrying on this valuable agency.

The services of the clinic are free to every baby in Arlington Heights. Dr. L. S. Robins, the baby specialist, who has been in charge of the clinic the last year and a half, is a staff doctor of the Sarah Morse Pavilion, of Michael Reese hospital, Chicago, one of the foremost children's hospitals in the middle west. He is a graduate of the Illinois Medical school and has done post-graduate work in the field of infant feeding in Vienna.

An individual chart is made out for each baby at the time of enrollment. The baby is weighed, examined by the doctor, and the mother is supplied with directions and advice for the baby's care and feeding at each monthly visit. No sick babies may be brought to the clinic hence there need be no fear that any baby will catch a contagious disease while there.

The monthly clinic is held the afternoon of the second Wednesday of each month in the rooms of the Arlington Heights public center above the Davis store. Miss Martha Jackson, public health nurse, is in charge to assist Doctor Robins. Mrs. George Parker registers the babies and keeps the charts on file.

Card of Thanks

NEW NEIGHBORS

The new arrivals in Arlington Heights are increasing in numbers that it is difficult for a reporter to record them all. Some of them have been here some time before they are properly introduced. Among these are Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Davis who reside in the Hagenbrunn apartments. Mrs. Davis is probably better acquainted in Arlington Heights than her husband. She is operating a beauty parlor in connection with the Prosser Barber Shop. Mr. Davis has been on the shelf several months due to an injured back, caused by the misplacement of muscles when he attempted to crank his car, an injury that proved worse than a broken arm. He returns this week to his job as salesman for the Chicago Steel and Wire Co. When asked why he came to Arlington Heights he replied "I was looking for the best suburb in the Chicago district and having found it, I came."

Elwine Caroline Struwe, nee Schnake, began her early life March 28, 1872 in Chicago. Here she received sacrament of Holy Baptism at the hands of Sainted Pastor Johann Grosse and later she was confirmed in Lutheran faith by the Sainted Pastor Succop. On March 15, 1899 she was united by Rev. Succop, in holy matrimony with her present bereaved husband, Chas. Struwe. After 6 years residence in the city, the family removed to Austin and united with Lutheran congregation at that place under pastorage of Rev. Bartling. In June, 1920, the deceased and her family made their home in Arlington Heights, uniting into membership with our congregation. About four years ago her health began to fail, and since that time she had been under constant medical care. She was taken seriously ill about four weeks ago and was confined to her sick bed from which she never arose. Although everything humanly possible was done for her by loving hands, she was not to recover her health. At 5:45 a. m. last Friday morning she quietly and peacefully fell to sleep in arms of Jesus, her savior and has now acquired that peace which passeth all understanding.

She leaves to mourn her departure, her sorely bereaved husband, Chas. Struwe, her four daughters: Adeline, Irene, Erna and Olivia, her aged mother, Mrs. Mary Schnake, one sister, Mrs. Ida Johnson, three brothers: Paul, Leo, Walter Schnake.

Finnan Haddie

The fisher folk of Findon, Scotland, were responsible for finnan haddie. Many years ago they discovered the secret of salting and smoking haddock rather better than other coast dwellers. Findon is pronounced "Finnan"; haddock were called "haddie." Hence to the little Scotch hamlet goes the honor of originating the name of this popular sea food.

Sound Waves Bore Hole

Sound waves of a frequency of 200,000 to 500,000 vibrations a second passed along a tapering glass rod caused the tip to bore a hole in a piece of wood and a plate of glass, a French experimenter discovered recently. When the waves were communicated to a glass thread about one-hundredth of an inch thick and more than a yard long the frictional effect was so intense that the flesh could be burned.

"We're Back Again" Say League Of Arts

This evening, November 2, at 8:15 p. m., the regular show of the month will be presented at the New Catholic School Hall. It is the one chance of a life time to hear a real good quartet engaged especially for "The Old Times." That means anybody who cares for songs that never grow old. And not alone will there be singing but in the customary way the league of arts is presenting a big, well-rounded program consisting of The Drum and Bugle Corps of our American Legion—a piano impromptu, and a one act play "The Bride and the Burglar."

This little play is very entertaining and the cast does a splendid piece of work in putting it over. There are only three characters consisting of Myrtle Gould, as the Bride; Edward Wallbaum as her husband; and Mr. C. Brown as the burglar.

There is a performance that has all the resemblances of a big hit. It was designed to suit the tastes of the whole family thereby making a good place for the family to go together. Regular admissions are 50c and children are 35c. Be there to see the most expensive show ever before in Glenview.

"Tammany's" Beginning Tammany is a corruption of Tammey, the name of an early chief of the Delaware Indians. In 1789, W. N. Mooney organized a secret society adopting many Indian rites and ceremonies and the corrupted name Tammany. He called the organization "Sons of St. Tammany."

After their marriage they went on a farm until 1882, when Mr. Rose went into a general store business in the place now occupied by Mr. Samuel Meyer. Later on he moved into the store of Peter Blameuser, Sr., which had been moved across the street on Lincoln avenue. From there he moved into the old Harns building, where now the office of the Niles Center news is located. Here he kept a restaurant and boarding house which used to be headquarters for the people who came to the market, which, at that time, did a great business. International Stock Show Offers Many Attractions

Thanksgiving will see the Horn of Plenty tipped decidedly in the direction of Chicago, when the International Live Stock Exposition opens its doors on the first Saturday following Thanksgiving, December 1 to 8 are the dates of the exposition.

At no other time of the year and at no other place is there to be seen so complete a collection of the very choicest products of American farm homes, fields, and feed-lots. Breeders and feeders of fat cattle have sent in their entries from the far-away west coast, according to Manager B. H. Heide, while others, he says, are being received from the tide-water country of the Atlantic.

The northern border states, as well as the southern, and the great live stock area, the corn belt, will each and all be represented in the final and crowning event of the live stock and agricultural show season. Grain and hay from the corn belt will vie for the attention of the public along with crop samples from far-away Australia and New South Wales. Over 5,000 samples of 22 different varieties of grains and hays are expected to be received in the coming International Grain and Hay show, declares Mr. Heide.

In the brilliant evening horse show, which will be the close and climax of each day's program, the very best specimens of the country's most famous blooded strains will be on hand for recognition in this national competition. Farm youth has its day at the International. The National Boys' and Girls' Club Congress, held within the gates of the show, will be attended by some 1500 boys and girls from almost every state in the Union.

Educational displays, judging and auctions of about 2,500 of the finest quality steers fed during the past year five great auctions of breeding cattle, the familiar and widely attended "Meat Shoppe" (given from a new angle this year), a wool show, to be held for the first time in the history of the exposition, will all compete for the attention of the visitor and tax the skill of the exhibitor.

Railroads entering Chicago have indicated that they will offer special reduced round-trip rates from points along their lines to Chicago, during International week.

Not a Chance
Another thing a man can't understand is why his wife always is looking in his direction when he spills ashes on the rug and he gets no chance to take his handkerchief out and dust them around so they won't be noticed.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

AMONG THE THEATRES

"Mother Knows Best" Enters Second Week On Roosevelt Screen

One of the most widely read and likewise commented upon stories that has appeared in recent years, "Mother Knows Best," by Edna Ferber, of which the film picturization is now in its second week at the Roosevelt theater.

Mother themes have been widely used in screen stories, but "Mother Knows Best," the story of a child of the stage and her mother, treats the underlying theme from an entirely different angle. It emphasizes the longing of a girl for the natural in contrast to the artificiality of a theatrical career, a longing which gradually brings about a transition of character and plants the seeds of a combat between the artificial and the real.

"Singing Fool" Continues On Screen At McVickers

Thousands of toy balloons are set free at the climax of a riotous New Year's Eve celebration in a New York night club, shown in Al Jolson's smashing talking and singing sensation "The Singing Fool," which is breaking all records for receipts and attendance at McVickers theater now.

Merrymakers in evening dress crowd the dance floor of the cabaret, while others watch from tables which surround it. The ingratiating Jolson hovers over all as proprietor and master of ceremonies, guiding the activities of the seething mass of humanity, which is feverishly bent on frivolity.

With Vitaphone reproducing all the sounds incidental to such an occasion—the blaring of the orchestra, the tooting of horns, the staccato clatter of noise-making devices—the scene conveys an impression of reality, such as has seldom been obtained in a film before.

And through it all Jolson singing, talking, cajoling the revelers and helping them to celebrate blends into the perfect impression of a Night Club in New York.

"Companionate Marriage" At The Oriental

Paul Ash, the idolized Jazz Rajah, presiding over his Merry Gang at the Oriental theater, will present to his fans next week something new in the way of stage shows, when he offers "Bits of Broadway." Starting Saturday, Nov. 3, this riotous jamboree often will rock Randolph street with its hilarious jazz and syncopation. "Bits of Broadway" will offer a stage chock-full of glorious talent and dazzling dancers, offset by a splendid atmospheric setting.

"Companionate Marriage," one of the most sensational stories ever filmed, will be seen that week on the Oriental theater screen. The picture is a dramatization of Judge Ben Lindsey's famous book, probably the most talked of book in America. The book has sold hundreds of thousands of copies, and has introduced the phrase into the language of the day.

MANNHEIM

Church services or Sunday school Sunday, Nov. 4, on account of the 25th anniversary celebration of the Ev. Friedens church at Bensenville, at which there will be both German and English services at 10:30 a. m. 2:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m., to which everyone is cordially invited.

Rev. Krueger of Chicago, has accepted the pastorate of the Evan. St. Paul's church at Mannheim. He will be here to officiate at the next services Sunday, Nov. 11. The services will be in German starting at 10:30 a. m. Sunday school at 9:00 a. m.

St. Paul's Young Peoples League will hold their next meeting Friday, Nov. 2, at 8:30 p. m. in the church basement.

The Ladies Aid of St. Paul's church will meet at the home of Mrs. P. T. Tiedeman at 3202 Mannheim road Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 7. All members are requested to bring all their "Sunshine" which they have been saving for the past few months.

A Plunket supper is to be given by the Ladies Aid in the basement of St. Paul's Evan. church Monday, November 19, at 6:30 p. m. Everybody cordially invited.

The entertainment and dance held at the Mannheim school Saturday night, turned out to be a successful event. There were many present and everyone had a splendid time. We hope we will be able to attend more affairs of this kind.

Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt's sons visited with their parents Sunday at their newly remodeled home in south Mannheim.

The residents of Mannheim would appreciate it very much if the village board would do something about Cleveland avenue. This road is in a very bad condition which should be remedied as soon as possible to avoid serious accidents.

Civic Crown High Honor

A civic crown was merely a wreath of oak leaves with pendant acorns, and was one of the most highly valued honors a Roman could attain. It was given for saving the life of a citizen in battle, at the same time killing the opponent and maintaining the ground upon which the fight took place. One to whom it was given had a right to wear it always.

The Foot-Mother

Little Mary Esther had heard the grown-ups discuss the stepmother problem. She often played that her pet kitten was her child. One day her mother heard her saying to the kitten, "Now you have to mind me, even if I am only your foot-mother."

MASON LODGE CONSTITUTED

Grand Lodge of Masons of Illinois Officiating In
The Ceremonies

The constituting ceremonies of Bensenville Lodge, No. 1159, A. F. & A. M., of Illinois, was held in the high school auditorium, Wednesday evening, Oct. 24, at 8:00 by the Grand Lodge officers.

The Grand Lodge officers and their guests were received at the lodge hall by W. Bro. Geo. M. Groves and wife and daughter as host and hostesses, where they partook of a hearty meal, prepared by the ladies of the Eastern Star Club.

The Grand Lodge officers were very complimentary to the ladies of the lodge for the delicious meal they had prepared for them, and of the taste and style in which it was prepared.

After the dinner was over the Grand Lodge wended their way to the high school, where they were mystified in the wonderful auditorium prepared for their acceptance and spoke in flattering terms of our school district in having such a splendid place for holding such ceremonies.

The ushers, Orlando Duntman, Gerald Capot, Ralph Koebelman, Oliver Franzen, in charge of Mr. Heim, did wonderful work in seating the people.

At 8:30 o'clock the Brethren of the lodge assembled on the stage with W. Bro. Groves, Master, in the East, who ordered the Marshal to repair to the apartment of the Grand Lodge and inform the Most Worshipful Grand Master that lodge was ready for constitution.

In due time the Grand Lodge entered in form with Mrs. F. C. Fenton rendering the music for the ceremonies.

Grand Lodge Officers:

Bro. Edwin F. Works, Most Worshipful Grand Master.
Bro. William Tinsley, Asst. Grand Master.

Geo. W. Bumann, Junior Deacon.
Jesse O. Capot, Junior Steward.
Carl E. Kirchhoff, Senior Steward.
Erwin H. Franzen, Marshal.
Arthur H. Pierron, Tyler.

We are informed that about forty lodges were represented in the audience, and among them was Glencoe Lodge of Glencoe, Ill., who came with seven Past Masters and several brethren. Mr. Maguire, one of the past Masters of Glencoe, approached the East and in an impressive address, in behalf of his brethren, presented Worshipful Master Groves with a solid Ivory gavel.

After the ceremonies the Master announced that lunch would be served at the lodge hall to all who cared to partake thereof. We are informed that between three and four hundred took advantage of the invitation.

We believe this to be one of the grandest ceremonies ever conducted in Bensenville, and will be for many years to come.

Friedens Church To Celebrate Twenty- Fifth Anniversary

Friedens church of Bensenville will observe its 25th anniversary next Sunday. The celebration will take the form of three services, morning, afternoon and evening. The speaker in the morning will be Dr. Schick, president of the Northern Illinois district, who was also the 1st pastor of the Bensenville church. He will speak in both English and German. Reception of new members by Rev. Wagner will occur at this service. It is expected that twenty-five will be welcomed in commemoration of the event.

In the afternoon the speakers will be Rev. H. L. Barth, of St. John's church, northeast of Bensenville and Rev. G. T. Haller, pastor of Long Grove church. The Friedens choir will sing at both these services.

The evening service will be in the form of a reunion of the 25 confirmation classes and a quartette from Elmhurst college will render several numbers. It is very fitting that Rev. H. Senne should be one of the speakers at this service as he is a child of Friedens church.

He was confirmed and ordained by Rev. Wagner, both of which events took place in that church. He is at present preaching in Oak Park. Rev. O. Wagner will be the other speaker that evening.

The latter holds a parish in Gary, Ind., and is studying at the theological school connected with the Chicago university.

Invitations to attend these services have been forwarded to eighteen neighboring pastors and their congregations. A general invitation has also been announced to include the entire community and friends of the congregation as well as members are expected to fill the church in honor of this occasion.

Dinner and supper will be served without charge in the basement of the church by the Ladies Aid society. A special committee will have charge of the decorations. Rev. Wagner will give a comprehensive report of the activities and progress of the church during the twenty-five years of its existence.

The Friedens church society was originally formed in March 1903. The growth of Bensenville and removal to the village of many people who held membership in St. John's church and Emmanuel church of Churchville, brought about the need of a place of worship within the village. Rev. Fleer, who was at that time pastor of the Churchville church was instrumental in the formation of the new congregation.

At that time the plan of some of the members were that one central church in Bensenville should serve the entire field. This plan failed to materialize and today there are three churches within a radius of three and a half miles. However, they are all prosperous and have served their individual communities well. Three miles to the east of Bensenville, at Mannheim there is a fourth church of the same denomination that was organized shortly after the formation of Friedens church.

Friedens church has had only two pastors. Rev. Wagner came to Bensenville in 1909 and has remained here ever since. The church now has a membership of 200 and many other families that are identified with that body.

Citizens of Wooddale Hold Open Caucus

The citizens of Wooddale continue to go right ahead in making their village a real business organization. Tuesday evening at 8 they gathered at Scheidel's Hall and held an open caucus, in which several names were voted on for nominations to the different village offices.

The following officers were nominated to be voted upon at some later day, John C. Schwass, president of the Board of Trustees, Edwin Hoppensteadt, Clerk and Robert Parrish, Ralph Bolling, Chas. Schroeder, Stephen Owens, Herman Dohe and Louis Danneire to serve as trustees.

The date for the village election has not as yet been set, however, the same will be held within a short time no doubt. All of these men are well known in this community and there is no doubt that they will serve the people well if elected for the respective offices. There has been no other caucuses held and it is the general opinion that there will be no opposition to these gentlemen.

Wooddale has the well wishes of the entire district and it is the hope of all that the spirit of community cooperation now being shown by the citizens of this thriving suburb will continue unbroken as long as this village is in existence.

Republicans To Hold Mass Meeting At Franklin Park

Saturday evening, November 3, the Franklin Park Club House will be the gathering place for all of Leyden Republicans, when a large mass meeting will be held sponsored by the Republican committee.

This meeting will be exceptional interesting not only to Republicans, but to all citizens, as the meeting will be addressed by Judge John A. Swanson, candidate for states attorney of Cook county; George H. Weidling, candidate for sheriff, will also speak; also Edward R. Litsinger, candidate for member Board of Review.

All three of these men are running for very important offices and it will be well for every citizen to come out and hear what they have to say, in reference to their policies if elected. Election day is just a few hours away and any last minute information in regards to the different candidates will presumably be given to those attending.

We have been informed that there will also be a large delegation from adjoining towns, who will be here with their bands and that a large musical program is being arranged. River Grove, Elmwood Park, Bellwood and Melrose Park are expected to send over their leading republicans to take part in this big Republican Rally.

Irving Park Blvd. Bridge Is Improved

One of the greatest boons to motorists using Irving Park Boulevard is the repairing of the approaches to the Irving Park bridge across the Des Plaines river, located at Schiller Park.

For weeks these approaches were in terrible condition, deep ruts, and a bumpy way on both ends. This has now, however, been repaired and you can now ride across the bridge without fear of breaking up your car.

Crushed stone has been used to improve this condition and has been laid from the cement on River road to the cement on the east side of the bridge.

FRANKLIN PARK CUT OFF FROM OUTSIDE WORLD

Closing of Grand Avenue and River Road Cuts Village
Off From the Loop

Perhaps one of the most flagrant injustice done the town of Franklin Park was consummated when the highway department closed Grand avenue intersection, and the "Milwaukee" road closed River road leading into Franklin Park. The village is now left without any direct route to the Chicago loop, and trucks and cars wishing to get in to Franklin Park are compelled to make long detours.

Towns Interests Neglected
The isolating of Franklin Park at this time, is one case where state and county highway departments have entirely neglected the interests of the Franklin Park citizens and business men, for the destruction of all roadways leading in from the East by repairs, has certainly left the village in a deplorable condition.

It was the opinion of the citizenry the same method would be employed on the paving of the Grand avenue intersection, as was done on Franklin avenue, when one side at a time was paved, which left a lane for traffic, therefore avoiding closing the street. Apparently the contractors or engineers who had charge of the Grand avenue project had other thoughts, and felt they served the people interests by entirely closing the street. This leaves Franklin Park without any suitable detours, and business that would ordinarily come to Franklin Park is now going elsewhere.

Construction Co. Not Interested
In an attempted interview with authorities of the Illinois Construction Company, who are doing the work on this trip, we discovered they were very little interested in the matter, they referred a representative of this paper to the state inspector on the road, who, in turn, referred him to a Mr. Somebody else, it seemed a case of passing the buck down the line. After spending nearly two days endeavoring to locate somebody who knew something about the matter, he got in touch with commissioner Smith, who told him he was looking out for the interests of the Franklin Park people, and would investigate the matter. The matter should have been investigated before this condition was ever allowed to arise.

Milwaukee Road Closes River Road
To make a bad story worse, the "Milwaukee" road started to fix their grade crossing on River road located between Belmont avenue and Chestnut, which closed River road to traffic over this route, if this work could have been done before the closing of Grand avenue, it would have left a suitable detour into the village.

Franklin Park is very thankful for the grade crossing put in by the "Milwaukee" in Franklin Park, and presumably they had instructions from the "Highway" department to go ahead with the work on River road, the objection is with the county officials who allowed all roads leading East to become closed.

"The Racket" On
Chicago Screen

Action and thrills are superbly pictured in "The Racket," Thomas Meighan's latest starring effort which will be at the Chicago theater next week. No underworld picture has equalled this stirring and realistic interpretation of municipal graft and gun-play, and Thomas Meighan is unfolded in the most convincing characterization of his brilliant career.

As Captain McQuigg, fighting and fearless police officer, the popular Irish star is shown in a new kind of role, and he packs a celluloid wallop that wrings universal plaudits wherever the picture has been shown.

"The Racket" is one underworld film that rings true. Its situations are real, and its characters genuine and colorful. The action is as plausible as it is spectacular.

Meighan was never better cast in any picture that he has made. As the handsome police officer, he is singularly in contrast with his arch-enemy, Nick Scarisi, portrayed by Louis Wolheim, the "ugliest" man on the screen.

The long and exciting feud between the gun-toting Scarisi on one hand, and Captain McQuigg on the other, is one of the most melodramatic high lights. The plot concerns the struggle between McQuigg and Scarisi for supremacy of a gang-ridden precinct and the inevitable intrigue and gunplay provide the fireworks.

Marie Prevost is the night club entertainer and supplies the heart interest. She is the only feminine player in the cast, but performs the responsibility with charm and finesse.

Marion Harris, Broadway's favorite singing beauty, will be seen on the Chicago theater stage in person in the sumptuous and glorious production, "Wonderful Girl."

Miss Harris, who can sing blues songs better than anyone else, has included in her repertoire some of the numbers that made her famous.

WHEELING
Remember Tuesday, November 6. Government of the people, by the people and for the people, cannot function properly when its citizens neglect the polls. As we go, may we forget party lines, cast off personal prejudices, and vote for those men whose policies are such that will tend to the building up of a stronger, cleaner, and safer nation, that "Government of the people, by the people and for the people" as it is represented by the United States of America may rise up among the nations of the world, a worthy monument to the noble souls who created it.

Mrs. C. Birk spent several days of last week here doing some work for her brothers.

Mr. O. Upadell is away on a trip to Texas.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Gilman Anderson of Deerfield at the Wheeling hospital on Thursday, Oct. 25.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reeb have come here to spend the winter months. Mr. Reeb will operate the Wheeling Feed Mill, while his brother, who contemplates making a trip to Arizona, is away.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Upadell returned home last Friday from a very pleasant trip thru the East.

About 25 members of the Intermediate classes of the Presbyterian Sabbath school, spent a merry evening with Halloween games and pranks last Friday evening. On Saturday afternoon about the same number of junior members of the school enjoyed a similar party.

After a lingering illness of several years duration, Mrs. Frank Forke slipped away into the Great Beyond last Saturday evening. Funeral services were held on Wednesday. The full obituary will be found elsewhere.

Miss Fritz Wick has gone to the Grant hospital for treatment of the Thyroid glands.

YE OLDE REPORTER
Babe Ruth, the swatting batsman is not so great according to Ye Olde Reporter's opinion, for it appeared in a paper the other day that "Train hits auto across the river."
Speaking of gold strikes back in the olden days 'twas nothing compared with when Uncle Abner had a stroke. (for his heirs).
Many an advertisement has been made to sound queer by the omitting or displacement of a letter, but the one which should carry home the bacon is as follows: "Wanted—Burglars for the newly formed band—Please apply—etc."
Is It Coming to This?
First Doc: "You look worried."
Second Doc: "I am."
First Doc: "What's the matter?"
Second Doc: "A flapper wishes to be vaccinated where it won't show."
A man was telling of his visit in Europe and his various sights. He was relating this one to a friend, "I was in an art master's home, where he had an spider's web painted so naturally that the chamber maid the first time she saw it tried to sweep it down." The listener shook his head. "What," said the relater of the incident, "do you not believe me that they have such artists over there?" "Yes, I do believe that, but I know that such a chamber maid never existed."
Politicians running for office should have this included in their planks and policies, "—and further more if I am elected I promise to bring into existence a law which will compel pranky boys who go around on Hallowe'en night soaping other peoples windows, that they shall be compelled by their ma's to wash the dishes for six weeks."
In conclusion Ye Olde Reporter would like to know if any of the readers can—

Hallowe'en Party Of Chamber of Commerce
Wednesday night the business men of Mt. Prospect had an evening of pleasure instead of business when they held their Hallowe'en and get-together party.
Fred Meske, as chairman of the entertainment committee, arranged a very delightful evening program. O. H. Landeck, president of the chamber of commerce, delivered a very appropriate address of welcome, after which Mr. Meske asked all present to rise and state their names and business so that all would know each other.
H. R. Noll, was ringmaster and lead the community singing in an exceptionally capable manner.
F. L. H. Leuders, chairman of the membership committee gave a talk next in which he outlined the activities of the chamber, showing that the chamber was responsible for the new public school, the chairs in the community hall and told also of its part in securing the municipal playground and its work in getting the house numbering system into effect.
He mentioned the good that results when the entire business men of Mt. Prospect organize and cooperate through a membership in the chamber of commerce.
Miss Frederick and Miss Meyn next rendered a beautiful musical number in which Miss Fredericks played the saxophone, accompanied on the piano by Miss Meyn.
It would not be fair if the chairman had not called upon William Busse, who gave a very interesting talk on the early business history of Mt. Prospect and the results of cooperation of the business men. He also stated that he was pleased to be a member of such an organization as the chamber of commerce.
Dr. Simons spoke a few words and left a very good impression on those present.
Next Mr. Noll lead in more singing, after which refreshments were served and the playing of games began.
Geo. Neitzke was the official pianist of the evening, playing for the songs.
The hall was beautifully decorated in true harvest style with Jack-o-lanterns and corn stalks, as well as the Hallowe'en colors of black and orange.
The chamber of commerce is making strides forward and under the leadership of its new president, Mr. Landeck, Mt. Prospect can look forward to a bright future.

Valuable Hardwood
Birch is Canada's most important hardwood. Of the seven Canadian species, the yellow birch (Betula intea) and the paper birch (Betula alba or papifera) are the best known. The former is used for flooring, furniture, cabinet work, and vehicle stock, while the tough, resinous bark of the latter has supplied the aborigines for centuries with the material for covering their famous birch-bark canoes.
Not Mated
Billy was very much excited over the arrival of a new baby brother and spread the news all over the neighborhood.
"Does he look like you?" asked the corner groceryman, trying to be sociable with one of his best penny customers.
Billy thought it over for a few moments and then replied seriously: "Oh, no, he is a much deeper shade than I am."
That Boston Tea Party
When Boston citizens dumped the king's tea overboard in prerevolutionary days, they simply destroyed an inferior product, asserts the Tea Club of the United States. Tea of Colonial days could not pass pure food inspection today.
